Just over a year after a fire destroyed the original location

JJ's BBQ reopens in Elba at new location

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Just over a year after fire destroyed the original location of JJ's BBQ in Elba, owner Chequita Walker along with her family, employees and friends celebrated a new beginning Monday, July 1, with the grand re-opening of JJ's BBQ in its new location.

Walker now has a permanent building located at 804 W Davis Street with a walk-up window for orders. The new facility also has restrooms for those waiting on orders to be prepared.

On Monday, JJ's BBQ served its full menu for the first time from this new location. The restaurant has prepared to be open from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. on Monday but had to close early due to being sold out! Many said this was a reflection of just how much the community had missed JJ's BBQ since the May 5, 2023 fire that destroyed the original building that was located on Claxton Avenue in Elba.

The Elba Chamber of Commerce held a ribbon cutting ceremony Monday morning for JJ's BBQ welcoming it back to business in the city, and Walker thanked everyone for their support and prayers in getting them back.

JJ Walker, the business's namesake, thanked the Lord for his blessing on the business and family. He thanked God for allowing them to build the new restaurant and "come back better than any of us could have imagined."

Now open in the new location, JJ's BBQ again displays a plaque where it was named home of the 2020 Best of Bama Pulled Pork, and the staff is ready and willing to serve the community.

Walker said the new hours for JJ's BBQ will be Tuesday - Friday from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m., and Saturday from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. JJ's will be closed on Sunday and Monday each week.

"On behalf of the City of Elba, let me say we are very excited to welcome you back to business," Elba Mayor Tom Maddox said Monday after 'cutting the ribbon' to commemorate the re-opening of JJ's BBQ.

The Elba Chamber of Commerce hosted a ribbon cutting ceremony Monday, July 1, for JJ's BBQ. The business celebrated a grand re-opening at its newly constructed location on Davis Street in Elba. JJ's BBQ has been closed since May 2023 when a fire destroyed the original restaurant building. Owner Chequita Walker thanked everyone for their support during this time, and she said she was happy to be able to reopen on Monday. Present for the ribbon cutting ceremony were Elba Chamber and City leaders, local beauty queens, and other family and friends. Assisting Mayor Tom Maddox with the cutting of the ribbon was JJ Walker - the namesake of JJ's BBQ.

Coffee County BOE approves personnel matters at called meeting

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Coffee County Board of Education met Monday evening, July 1, for a called meeting, and the main item on the agenda for board members was to approve several personnel matters. Superintendent Kelly Cobb presented the board with her list of personnel recommendations, and the board approved those with no opposition.

Three teacher resignations were accepted by the board. These included resignations from Ronda Lucht, teacher at Zion Chapel [effective June 30th], Haleigh Dewberry, teacher at New Brockton Elementary, and Hope Scarbrough Turner, teacher at New Brockton High School.

The board also accepted retirement papers from Regina Kyles, a teacher at New Brockton Elementary. Her retirement will be effective Aug. 1st.

Four teacher employments for the upcoming school year approved Monday evening by the board included: Morgan Morris and Amanda Davis, teachers at New Brockton Elementary; Kayla Kelley, teacher at New Brockton High; and Ashley Carson, teacher at Zion Chapel.

Regarding support personnel, the board accepted a resignation from Tony Ivey, a bus driver for the school system.

Also, the board approved hiring Ashley Warden as a secretary at Zion Chapel School for the upcoming school year.

The meeting included a 10-15 minute executive session. The board attorney noted the need for the executive session as being to discuss pending litigation. No action was taken regarding the matter following the executive session.

The superintendent said projects at the schools taking place over the summer break were progressing nicely.

Cobb further noted that ACAP scores recently released showed Coffee County Schools did very well on the testing again this year. Cobb said the school system once again, for the second year in a row, had the highest scores for the entire county. She said Coffee County's reading scores remain some of the best in the state.

The next regular meeting for the Coffee County Board of Education will be Thursday, July 11, at 5:30 p.m.

New Brockton Mayor Charles Schieffer recently presented a monetary donation to Coffee County Schools superintendent Kelly Cobb for the monies to be utilized for new basketball uniforms at New Brockton High School and New Brockton Middle School. The New Brockton Town Council voted to contribute to both programs for the boys and girls. These funds will allow the program to move forward and purchase the uniforms for the upcoming school year.

Elba man arrested on drug charges including multiple counts of drug trafficking

A high-speed pursuit Thursday, June 27, between a suspect and law enforcement led to the arrest of an Elba man on multiple drug charges including drug trafficking.

Coffee County Chief Deputy Michael Hines said deputies with the Coffee County Sheriff's Office attempted to make a traffic stop last Thursday on a vehicle begin driven by Alfred Tremayne Purvis, age 47, of Elba, for having outstanding felony warrants from Coffee County.

"Purvis led deputies on a high-speed pursuit into Covington County for a short period of time and then returned to Coffee County," Hines said. "During the pursuit Purvis was observed discarding multiple bags of narcotics from his vehicle."

He said the pursuit ended on Coffee County Road 376 where Purvis pulled into a residence and surrendered to deputies without incident.

Purvis was taken into custody and charged with four counts of drug trafficking, two counts of unlawful possession of a controlled substance, felony attempting to elude, and tampering with physical evidence.

He was booked into the Coffee County Jail following arrest and was released Friday evening, June 28, on bond.

Local church questions regarding Elba's policy on business licensing

Danny Jordan, a member of Covenant Community Church addressed the Elba City Council during the Monday, June 24, meeting regarding the business license policy for events.

"Our church has been hosting events we are calling Funtastic Fridays," Jordan said.

He said the purpose events is to bring the community together through a Christian family-friendly event. He said participants are asked to bring donations to be given to organization around town such as Fostering Angels, the Elba Food Bank, and for supplies for teachers. Any monies made by the church will be used to build a playground behind the church for the children of the church.

"We were called and informed our vendors would be required to purchase a business license from the City of Elba," Jordan said. "We were told someone had complained to code enforcement and this was the reason this was happening."

He continued, "The city has set a precedent with its own actions concerning events with Restoration 154, a non-profit organization. They bring in vendors, and

Alabama Lt. Governor Will Ainsworth served as the keynote speaker Thursday night, June 27, for the Elba Chamber of Commerce's annual membership banquet. He addressed several matters the state had made progress with including being a military/veteran friendly state as well as providing more opportunities in education for career technical education programs. He said the state is being a 'gamechanger' in these areas. Following his address to the crowd, Elba Mayor Tom Maddox presented Ainsworth with a key to the city (as shown above). The Yonder Gang ventured out last weekend for brunch at Waffle House followed by a little shopping. The gang, except for Little Bean, loaded in Oscar Mike for the trip, and not one person complained about having to climb in the back, it being too hot! It was nothing short of a miracle!! Upon arriving at the WH between 10:30 and 11 a.m., Cuzin Lou Lou realized quickly that Saturday morning brunch is a popular thing. The restaurant was full, but the wait time was not too long. As usual, the meal was very good, and the waitress assisting the gang was new to the job. She asked for patience as she was still in training. This caused Lou Lou to pay a little more attention to the 'goings-on' for the staff of WH. "I don't see how they do it," Lou Lou said to Sister as she observed three or four of the wait-staff taking turns calling out orders to the cooks. "I would be so confused trying to do all that at once!" When the gang's waitress delivered silverware to their table, Lou Lou offered to take hers directly from the waitress and set it on the table to keep her from having to reach over everyone. Surprisingly, the young waitress thanked Lou Lou for that and said she was the first person to ever offer to do it. That shocked Lou Lou, and she wondered why people would not offer to do small things like that to help a waitress or waiter out with their duties. Has society gotten to the point where we simply don't help one another? Surely not. Even when service is not at its best, Lou Lou and the Gang try to be understanding. Of course, there are times when it is bad enough that something must be said and an issue addressed, but if Lou Lou can tell the service provider is trying his/her best to do a good job...well, she tries to be courteous in return. Overall, when the gang agreed the young lady still has some 'kinks' to work out with her new job, but once she gets past the training part, she should be a good one! The most impressive thing to Lou Lou was her willingness to quickly correct anything that might have been wrong. As Lou Lou paid the bill, she was trying to decide on the tip amount. She knew she was going to make it a good one because she appreciated the effort of the gang's waitress. She turned to Sister to get her opinion on it too, and Sister immediately said, "just give her a good one...she earned!" Lou Lou did just that! Maybe it is time we all take a minute to really pay attention to the things going on around us...it just might be eye-opening. We never know when someone will be a blessing to us, or when we will get the opportunity to be a blessing to another person! Lou Lou hopes she and the gang were that to the sweet young waitress at WH last weekend. Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Editor

Happy Independence Day! Today's paper is dated for the Fourth of July, and we hope you and your family are enjoying our freedoms this day! If you see a veteran or a soldier today, be sure to thank him/her for all they did and/or are doing to ensure that freedom!

The City of Elba and Elba Chamber of Commerce will once again host Elba's Let Freedom Ring event tonight (Thursday, July 4) on the square in downtown Elba. There will be entertainment, food – including free watermelon provided by the Elba Masonic Lodge, and, of course, one of the best fireworks shows in the area! Each year, Elba native Mike Holderfield delivers the Let Freedom Ring fireworks show, and it is nothing short of spectacular! We bet this year's show will live up to the hype and are looking forward to 'oohing and aahing' with the best of 'em! Thank you to all that have a part in making this event happen each year.

If you want to set off your own fireworks this holiday...be sure to visit the folks over at T&T Fireworks. They have locations in Elba and Kinston. Toby Blair, one of the business owners, told us this week they have plenty of sparklers for sale for anyone wanting to burn a sparkler too as the fireworks are happening Thursday night in Elba! The Elba location is on the Troy Highway inbetween the levee and U.S. Hwy 84 bypass. Look for the fireworks signs!!

It is our understanding that initial ACAP scores for the state have been released recently, and the local schools did real good! At a meeting earlier this week, Coffee County Schools superintendent Kelly Cobb said that school system had the top numbers in the county again this year. We also have heard that numbers for Elba City Schools were impressive this school year. This supports the notion that education is being done right within the school systems in this county. However, any educator will tell you quickly, there is always room for improvement, and they all work hard each and every day to make those improvements. We salute all for your hard work and dedication to educating tomorrow's leaders, and we hope you all continue to reach your goals.

We generally don't like to comment on politics...we have always left that to the "Brainstorms" man himself, Ferrin Cox, but we can't help but touch a little bit on last week's presidential debate between President Joe Biden and former President Donald Trump. Now, we missed the first part of the debate as we had attended the Elba Chamber of Commerce's annual membership banquet, but we did catch a good bit of the last half of it. First, we are concerned with the current president's state...it was hard to understand him most of the time either from his mumbling or him just really not making a whole lot of sense. As for Trump, we were actually surprised that he kept his cool throughout the part we watched – we did not witness one outburst from him, which was quite frankly, surprising. Biden often turned to using 'swear words' as he spoke, which we also thought was uncalled for in the moment. It was a presidential debate...there really was no need for speaking in that manner. While we were impressed with Trump's demeanor for the debate, we didn't like how he would evade the questions to continue to harp on a past question. At one point, we yelled at the television, "just answer the question!" He would eventually get to the question, but it had to be asked over and over first. Biden did his fair share of evading the questions too, so, maybe that is just how those things are done, but we don't like it. All in all, we felt like the debate was a 'win' for the Republicans much more than it was for the Democrats.

It is HOT outside folks! Be sure to take the necessary precautions to stay cool and hydrated if you must be outside for any length of time. Drink plenty of water, and stay in a shade whenever possible. Also, take breaks often if you work outside. Slowing down a bit is far better than ending up sick due to a heat illness or worse!

Alabama DHR cautions SNAP recipients against phone scammers

The Alabama Department of Human Resources is issuing a warning as reports of thieves targeting recipients of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) with fraudulent phone calls have recently increased.

There has been an uptick in the number of fraudulent calls received by SNAP recipients recently. The scammers, possibly identifying themselves as either working for DHR or EBT Customer Service, are asking for high-value information such as EBT card numbers, PINs and other personal information to verify the clients' EBT account in order to "unlock the account." Neither DHR nor EBT Customer Service will ever call or text to solicit EBT card or personal information for any reason.

"These thieves are attempting to take advantage of those most in need of assistance by any means at their disposal," Alabama DHR Commissioner Nancy Buckner said. "It is vital for those receiving benefits to protect their personal information. DHR is providing a list of tips which can help keep this vital data out of the hands of these bad actors."

DHR recommends these tips to protect against the scam:

Never provide personal information to an unfamiliar person or organization.

If a phone call seems like a scam, hang up without giving any information.

Beware that scammers often pressure victims to "act now!"

If an offer or claim sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

Do not trust caller ID. Scammers can use "spoofing" technology to disguise their phone numbers.

Never give anyone the PIN number for your EBT card.

SNAP recipients who are unsure if a request for information is legitimate should contact their local DHR office at a verified phone number. Contact information is available at <https://dhr.alabama.gov/county-office-contact/>.

The Food Assistance Division of DHR administers the SNAP program in Alabama. More information about the program can be found at <https://dhr.alabama.gov/food-assistance/>.

Coping with Grief in the Summer

Summertime can be a wonderful time, but if you have recently lost a loved one, it can also be a difficult time. The summer season can be made even harder when you see lots of other people outdoors having fun. You may not feel like celebrating and you may even feel guilty about your own happiness.

Here are some tips to help deal with grief in the summer:

Give yourself time. If this is the first summer without your loved one, it can be tempting to try to push yourself back into the activities you used to enjoy. Summer months can be busy, but make sure to give yourself time and space to grieve as well.

Try out things you used to enjoy. You may find these things are too painful at first, especially if they were activities you enjoyed with your loved one. However, if you give them a try, you may also find you still enjoy them.

Go outside if possible. A dose of some sunshine and Vitamin D can help you cope with stress.

Try a new activity or tradition that honors your loved one. Find a way to dedicate some time to remembering your loved one in a purposeful way. You might plan a special picnic at a spot your loved one always enjoyed visiting or plan a vacation to a spot that was important to them.

Remember that it is still ok to have fun. If you have experienced a loss you may feel like you will never be able to laugh or have fun again. When you do find yourself having a good time you may feel guilty, like you are dishonoring your loved one. But know that it is ok to find joy and be happy. It may help to do things that bring up happy memories of your loved one, such as swimming or going for a walk on the beach.

Get help if you are still struggling. If you find that you can't shake your feelings of sadness at all or start to feel overwhelmed, don't be afraid to seek out a counselor or support group to help you out. You can also seek out online options if you choose.

WHEREAS, the Coffee County Commission of Coffee County, Alabama proposes to vacate a purported public street or road described below;

WHEREAS, the said County Commission caused the publication of a Notice of Public Hearing on Vacation of said road, which said hearing was set for May 13, 2024, at the regularly scheduled meeting of the Commission on said date, with said publication being published once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the portion of Coffee County, Alabama where the purported un-named road lies;

WHEREAS, the County Commission further caused the posting of said Notice referenced above on bulletin boards at the Coffee County Courthouse as required by law and further caused the service of said Notice to be served by U.S. Mail at least 30 days prior to the hearing on May 13, 2024, to all abutting owners and to any entity known to have facilities or equipment such as utility lines, both aerial or buried, within the public right of way of the road which is proposed to be vacated; and,

WHEREAS, a motion was duly made by the Commissioner of the Commission who represents the District where the said, purported un-named road lies, to approve and adopt this Resolution (and said motion was duly seconded and passed); and,

WHEREAS, the County Commission, after having conducted said hearing and considering all relevant matters, including objections to said vacation, if any there were, finds it in the public interest to so vacate the purported, unknown road as described below and does elect to vacate said road as so described;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the County Commission of Coffee County, as follows:

1. The Coffee County Commission does hereby vacate the purported un-named road described as follows: That purportedly abandoned, un-named road of unknown width allegedly running from Moates Road and running in a northeasterly direction through the South one-half of the South-east Quarter, Section 6, Township 4N, Range 22E, and the North one-half of the Southeast Quarter in said Section 6, Township 4N, and Range 22E, and also allegedly running along, near and slightly over the eastern boundary line of said Southeast quarter, and continuing northeast running through a portion of the Northwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of Section 5, Township 4N, Range 22E and Southwest quarter and corner of the Northwest quarter of Section 5, Township 4N, Range 22E to where said purported road intersects with U.S. Highway 84, all of said purported road and the real property described above being located on west side of U.S. Highway 84 and north of Moates Road (For informational purposes see Coffee County Revenue Commissioner's Office Parcel Nos. 19- 16-03-06-4-000-001.000; 19-16-03-06-4-000-002.000; 19-16-03-05-2-000-013.001; 19-16-03-05-3-000-004.000; and, 19-16-03-05-3-000-004.000. See map attached hereto as Exhibit "A," incorporated herein by reference.

The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our grandson Lawson joined his Mom, Aunt Mel and Uncle Gabe at an 'escape room' in Dothan over the weekend and was the star of the show according to his teammates as they escaped with just two minutes to spare. I went several months ago and just sat down and kept notes while my family solved the mystery, and Lawson was again the master sleuth that helped us win the game. It's always good to have someone smart in the family!

For what it worth....

 The Elba Tigers and other high school football teams all across the state are getting a few days off from summer workouts this week to celebrate the fourth, but they will soon be back at work as the season draws closer. Elba has received loads of attention during the off-season due to four-star running back Alvin Henderson. However, Alvin and the Tiger coaches will quickly remind you it is a team sport, and that no one player can carry a team to success. From what I've been told all the Tigers are really working hard and are determined to bring home another state title after coming close the last two seasons, and I will admit I am already looking forward to the upcoming season and hopefully an historic run toward a state championship.

 I recently read an article in USA Today that stated youth sports across the country were dying and would soon be available to only those with enough money to take part in travel ball. While that isn't the case quite yet in south Alabama, it is true more and more youngsters in all sports are joining travel teams instead of playing 'rec ball,' and even though it helps for the parents to be able to afford the extra costs involved with fees, uniforms, and travel, many parents will sacrifice to let their children play travel ball with hopes of helping their children develop into star players. I remember a few years back when a friend of mine told me his son was at a travel tournament in Mississippi with his granddaughter and while the granddaughter would stay in a hotel with the team, his son would sleep in his car for two nights, and that he made the trip instead of paying the light bill, and when they got home the lights had been disconnected. That may be an exception, but it is true, and as a former recreation director will attest that leagues are getting smaller and smaller, in part to the lure of travel ball.

 Former Alabama Crimson Tide football coach Nick Saban now has an 'advisory position' on the staff, and it looks like they are willing to pay well for his advice as last week it was reported that he will earn $500,000 a year in the position. His first monthly paycheck in the amount of $41,666 was received in March, and in the report it states the pay covers a 40-hour work week. While the check received in March was far below his check for $858,716 he received in February, it is still a pretty good pension for the ex-Alabama coach! By the way, new head coach Kalen DeBoer's monthly check from the university is $834,978, which ain't bad, either.

 In closing.... Our youngest grandson is taking swimming lessons and that got me thinking back to how many hundred children took swimming lessons at the city pool when it was open at Hawkins-Williams Park. We would hold two classes each summer and each class would be filled with youngsters eager to jump in the water and learn to swim from the dozens of lifeguards that had to teach the lessons. I, and many others my age, took lessons from Dorothy Lindsey at her pool on Brunson Hill, while many others learned at the old city pool near the river. The old joke was that Coach Powell would just throw you in the water and if you made it to the side you knew how to swim and passed the course. Oh well, just thinking back.

ELBA LINEMEN HARD AT WORK.... Members of the Elba Tiger offensive and defensive line attended a football camp on June 25, at Huntingdon College, in Montgomery and during the camp the offensive line took part in fundamental periods to help develop both their run blocking and pass protection skills, while defensive line worked to improve their skills of both defeating the run and pressuring the quarterback on passing situations. Pictured above (l-r) are Tiger linemen Matthew McCart, Caden Kyles, Hakeem Scott, Emmanuel Cooks, Elijah Myrick-Davidson, Coach Tyler Reeves, Michael Remley, Victor Wall, Jordan Hammonds, Lewis Johnson and Matthew Laramore.

CHURCH & COMMUNITY NEWS

LPCE welcomes new members...Tama Watson and Mona Hooper were recently initiated as new members of the Luncheon Pilot Club of Enterprise by the LCPE Membership Chair Gina Oates. The new members were welcomed into the club and reminded that the name "Pilot" was inspired by the mighty riverboat pilots who represented leadership and guidance, that the Pilot principles are friendship and service; that the Pilot motto is "True Course Ever", and that the colors are green for life and vigor and gold for sincerity of purpose. Shown in the picture (from left) are Debbie Shelton (President), Tama Watson, Gina Oates, Mona Hooper and Mona's sponsor Sandra Danford. What does the Bible say about...The Bible?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15).

"Search the Scriptures; for in them you think you have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me" (John 5:39).

"These (in Berea) were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so" (Acts 17:11).

These people studied with an open mind and an open Bible, and such is a winning combination to learn God's will for us today.

Some thoughts in this article are from A. L. Franks of the Magnolia Messenger. As he stated, it may be that you should lay this article aside (for a while) and start your daily Bible reading right now. Because you can go to heaven without reading this article, but you can't go to heaven without learning and obeying the teachings of the world's greatest Book.

We should make daily Bible reading and study a part of our daily routine like we do in eating, sleeping, etc. God bless each of us in our diligent daily Bible study. You will thank God throughout eternity for the time you spend reading and studying His precious Word.

These lines of an unknown author are titled, "An Unused Book":

"Mother, I found an old dusty thing high on the shelf - just look!"

"Why that's a Bible, Tommy dear; be careful - that's God's book!"

"God's Book!" the child exclaimed; "then Mother, before we lose it, We'd better send it back to God, for you know, we never use it."

Rest Stop
The minister arrived early for the morning service, but one person was already seated in the sanctuary. She was sitting in the back, at the end of the pew, half asleep. The minister walked over and teased her about getting her nap finished before he began to preach.

"This is the only place I can get any rest," she said. At first he thought she had back trouble and the contour of the padded pew gave her relief, but as they talked on, he realized she meant something else. She worked a full-time job outside the home and cared for all the household duties in the home. When she came to the church building, it was the only time she could get any rest.

Many have experienced rest in the church - not physical rest, but spiritual and emotional rest. Guilt-laden people say, "This is the only place I can get any rest." Sorrow-laden people say, "This is the only place I can get any rest." Worried people say, this is the only place I can get any rest." Even people in physical pain can find relief in worship.

As an old hymn says, "O love that wilt not let me go, I rest my weary soul on thee."

Both Simeon and Anna found peace and rest in the place that had been dedicated to the worship and service of God. Many today will testify there is something about the atmosphere of a modern house of worship that brings a sense of contentment and rest to their bodies, their minds, and their souls. - R.C.S.

these vendors are exempt from paying city licenses." Jordan said according to the city's website, there are different types of vendors with different requirements for license.

"I believe every member of this council is a member of a church here," he said. "You understand how difficult it is to reach out and get new members. Funtastic Friday is our way of reaching out, supporting the community, and ministering to the people the way God has instructed us to do."

Jordan said Covenant Community Church was at the council meeting to ask for the same considerations given to Restoration 154 and chamber events. He asked that business license not be required also of vendors for Funtastic Fridays just as they are not required for Restoration 154 and chamber events.

Covenant Community Church has another Funtastic Friday scheduled for July 26th. Jordan asked for the council to consider the request before that time and let them know something. He said the business license issue had caused some people to back out of the previous event.

City attorney Bart Boothe asked if the vendors were for-profit vendors.

Jordan said they do make profit on the products they sell, but he said these are the same vendors coming to Restoration 154 and chamber events that are not required to purchase a business license.

"I am not aware of any exemption," Boothe said. "I trust Mr. Jordan in that there may have been exemptions for other events. I have never asked that question, but as far as an event where vendors are in a for-profit venture, they are selling things that make money for themselves or business. That is doing business in the City of Elba."

He said, under the city ordinance, that clearly falls under the requirement to need to purchase a business license. Boothe further noted there could be state law exemptions, but the council is not really able to exempt anyone without amending the city ordinance and exempting an entire class, such as event vendors, food vendors, etc.

The council agreed to address the matter further at it work session set for July 8 and council meeting to follow. Jordan asked to be notified of the council's decision in time that he could let vendors know prior to the church's final Fantastic Friday event set for July 26th.

The Spirit of Elba award seeks to recognize the embodiment of the essence of Elba. The personification of the spirit of community, caring, pride and a willingness to give back. This year's recipient was Gladys Yelverton. Lt. Governor Will Ainsworth made the presentation.
